3900 Ambassador Drive, Suite 401 Anchorage, AK 99508 907-729-2975 (Direct) 907-729-8719 (Fax) E-mail: glnothstine@anthc.org

What is FDPIR and how do Alaska tribes apply?

The FDPIR is a federal program that provides a month's supply of supplemental nutritious foods to income eligible Alaska Native, American Indian, and non-Indian households residing on a reservation or in a federally recognized (Alaska Native) tribal community, or in approved near areas which contain at least one tribally enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe.

Federally recognized tribes in Alaska are all eligible to administer FDPIR provided they can to follow USDA regulations to guarantee food safety, protect client privacy, and meet on-time reporting requirements. To download an ANTHC FDPIR Tribal Application simply go online and visit:

www.anthctoday.org/community/fdpir.html.

Household Eligibility

A household application for FDPIR is available in select tribal communities. Households can apply and be deemed income eligible on the same day they contact a tribal agency in their community. To view a current list of active federally recognized tribes administering the FDPIR program in Alaska visit:

www.anthctoday.org/community/fdpir.html.
