

ALASKA NATIVE
TRIBAL HEALTH
CONSORTIUM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 22, 2015

Media contact:
Michelle Weston, ANTHC Public Relations Director
(907) 729-5653, (907) 351-2206 (cell) mrweston@anthc.org

2016 Raven's Ball Luminary Award Nominations

(Anchorage, Alaska) – September 22, 2015 –

The Healthy Alaska Natives Foundation, the Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium's charitable arm, will host the ninth annual Raven's Ball on Saturday, April 2, 2016 at the Hotel Captain Cook in Anchorage.

The Raven's Ball is one of Alaska's premier black tie celebrations and dynamic fundraising events, and in 2016 we will continue its tradition of philanthropy that benefits the Foundation's three key initiatives: improving medical care; strengthening wellness and prevention efforts; and promoting healthy village environments.

One annual Raven's Ball highlight is the presentation of the Luminary Awards, which recognize individuals for their dedication and outstanding contribution to the Alaska Tribal Health System and community. The three award categories are:

President's Legacy & Leadership Award: This award recognizes an outstanding tribal health leader and/or health care professional, either formal or informal, who has impacted the culture and performance of the Alaska Tribal Health System. This individual should be recognized as an expert in their field as well as someone who has displayed a long-term commitment to helping improve the Alaska Tribal Health System.

Distinguished Provider Award: This award recognizes a health care provider whose dedication has made a difference in the lives of the patients they care for and in the Alaska Tribal Health System. This award can go to a physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, midwife, optometrist, physical therapist, dietician, health aid or any other clinician.

Community Spirit Award: This award recognizes the efforts of an individual or group who makes a difference through their advocacy of community health, education, support and outreach programs. This award recognizes an exceptional individual or group who has made volunteering and community service a way of life and demonstrates a sense of caring and responsibility for others.

2016 Luminary Awardee Nomination Packets are available at <http://inspiringgoodhealth.org/2016-ravens-ball/>. The deadline for nominations is close of business Friday, October 23, 2015.

For more information please contact the Healthy Alaska Natives Foundation at 907-729-5652 or email info@inspiringgoodhealth.org.

###

About the Healthy Alaska Natives Foundation

ANTHC's charitable arm, the Healthy Alaska Natives Foundation, works with donors and volunteers to raise awareness and funding for the unmet needs of the Alaska Tribal Health System and Alaska Native people. Together, we can inspire good health and improve medical care, promote wellness and prevention, and support healthy village environments. For more information on the Healthy Alaska Natives Foundation, please call (907) 729-5652 or visit www.inspiringgoodhealth.org.

Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium
4000 Ambassador Drive, Anchorage, Alaska 99508
Main: (907) 729-1900 | Fax: (907) 729-1901 | anthc.org