

Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium
Virtual 7 Generations - Environmental Planning for Rural Alaska
Dates: April 27-30, 2021 | Time: 9am – 3pm daily

About the Training

During this free, interactive virtual workshop, participants will learn a community-based approach for developing local environmental plans. The training also focuses on team building, community involvement, identifying environmental concerns that can impact health, and finding solutions.

Target Audience

Tribal Environmental Program Staff and Tribal Leaders

Participant Applications

Applications are available on our website and will be reviewed and approved based on space availability.

<https://anthc.org/what-we-do/community-environment-and-health/tribal-capacity-and-training/>

General Workshop Summary
The final training agenda will also include guest presenters, breaks and interactive activities.
Day 1 – Community Building	Day 2 – Environmental Challenges	Day 3 – Solutions	Day 4 – Pulling it all together
Introductions	Developing a vision for the future	Developing and using environmental assessments to engage residents in the planning process	Developing project action plans
Intro to the 7G Planning Process	Understanding environmental change in your community	Educating your community	Identifying project partners
Pulling together a planning team and getting your community involved	Defining your community’s needs	Calculating results of environmental assessments	Pulling your plan together and putting it into action
Viewing our communities holistically	Introduction to the technical assessment.	Identifying solutions to local environmental priorities	Evaluating and updating your plan

If you have any questions about the training, please contact Brandie Radigan | bdradigan@anthc.org, or Desirae Mack ddmack@anthc.org

