

THINKING ABOUT

Going back to school?

Alaska Pacific University offers up to a 30% tuition discount to Alaska Tribal Health System employees, board members and their dependents who are enrolled APU students.

Eligible students must meet the following requirements:

- Alaska Tribal Health System employee, board member or dependent
- 2021-2022 undergraduate or graduate APU student
- Commit to retention agreements, if or where applicable

To confirm your eligibility, visit anthc.org/APUScholarship or contact ANTHC at (907) 729-1301 or learning@anthc.org. Eligible employees must also apply and gain admission to a degree program at APU. Amount may not exceed the remaining cost of tuition when combined with other institutional scholarships and discounts, APU donor-funded scholarships, Federal Student Aid grants, and state scholarships and grants. Scholarship terms and conditions are reviewed annually.
